

Coach Frank Casillo

Coach Frank grew up in Orlando, FL and played soccer through high school and at the club level in college. He moved to the panhandle in 2008 and founded GulfSouth Soccer Club in 2012. Coach Frank has 2 boys, Caden and Colin, and enjoys spending time with them and traveling, especially to the mountains. His favorite restaurants in the area are Mimmo's and Fat Clemenza's, and he loves Italian food, wings and wine.

Coach Frank holds an E coaching license and a National Director of Coaching Diploma. He spent many years as the DOC of GulfSouth before stepping down in 2022. Today, in addition to coaching club soccer, he is also the Head Coach for the South Walton High School girls' soccer team. Coach Frank's favorite soccer player is Luka Modric and his favorite team is Manchester City. His advice to players is "value keeping the ball (in your team's possession)."
