

Coach Richard Fischer

Coach Rick is from upstate New York and grew up playing both soccer and ice hockey. He continued to play both sports at Hamilton College and then played semi-pro for several years. After college, Coach Rick played on the over 30 New Mexico state soccer team before moving to Florida with his wife Angie and son Jackson. In his free time, he enjoys skiing, ice fishing and trail running. Coach Rick's favorite soccer player is Willian.

Coach Rick holds a FYSA Grassroots soccer coaching license and is a FHSAA certified Level 1 official. He is proudest as a coach when his team is able to win against a better team as a result of playing together as a team. Coach Rick's advice to players is "focus on conditioning and work your ball-handling skills."
